First Sunday of Lent

Dear People of Saint James,

Lent 2018 is upon us. Large numbers joined us on Ash Wednesday—a wonderful indication of your faith and, I hope, your commitment to making this Lent the best you have ever lived.

This week's bulletin includes our Lenten schedule for Masses, Stations of the Cross, and Adoration. On Fridays during Lent, parishioners will have the opportunity to pray the Stations of the Cross and to join with others in the Adoration of the Blessed Sacrament. I am pleased to announce that once again this year, the children from Saint James School will pray the Stations at one o'clock on five of the Lenten Fridays (February 16th, March 2nd, March 9th, March 16th, and March 29th). Parishioners are cordially invited to join the students for the Stations and to stay for Adoration which will begin immediately following. Adoration will continue until the traditional Stations are prayed at 7:00 PM each Friday.

Fr. Dan from the Marian Fathers of the Immaculate Conception will conduct a Parish Mission on the Divine Mercy, March 5th through the 7th, with talks each evening beginning at 7:00 PM.

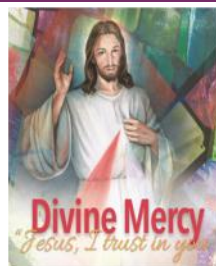

Monday Evening Confessions will be held from 7:00 to 8:00 PM at Saint James Church (except for Monday, March 5th, when they will be held from 6:00 to 7:00PM because of our parish mission.) If it's inconvenient for you to come to Saint James, you will be most welcome at any of the other parishes. (Of course, we will also offer the Sacrament of Penance here at Saint James at our usual times—Saturdays from 2:00 to 3:00 PM and Thursdays before First Fridays from 7:00 to 8:00 PM

Many Catholics try to attend Mass every day throughout Lent. If you can't do that, I would encourage you to try to make it to Mass at least one extra day each week. It's a wonderful practice!

A reminder: the ever-popular Little Black Books are available at the doors of the church. I know that many parishioners love these guides to daily Lenten prayer and look forward to receiving them each year. Be sure to pick up a copy.

May God bless you, and may the Holy Spirit inspire you as you continue your Lenten journey!

Father Carroll

Our Parish Mission will be held on March 5-7 at Saint James Parish.

Father Dan Cambra from the Marian Fathers of the Immaculate Conception will conduct a Parish Mission on the Divine Mercy.

Father will preach at all the Masses on the weekend of March 3/4. The Mission begins on Monday evening, and every night will begin at 7:00 PM. Topics to be covered Monday – Wednesday are as follows:

- ❖ The "A,B,Cs" of Divine Mercy
- ❖ The Feast of Divine Mercy and How to receive the Graces of Divine Mercy Sunday
- ❖ How Divine Mercy is the Heart of the Gospel
- ❖ The Theological Meaning of the Image
- ❖ The Historical Background of St. Faustina
- ❖ Receive a Blessing with the Relic of St. Faustina

We hope that you will make a special effort to attend and bring a friend!

Our theme this year, "Make Me an Instrument of Your Peace", is both powerful and timely. It comes from one of the most popular and well-loved prayers in the world: the Peace Prayer of Saint Francis. Peacemaking is not an optional commitment. It is a requirement of our faith. Time and again, Jesus calls us to be peacemakers. Faith intensifies our desire to address the questions of our times, precisely, in the light of the gospel: What is peace? What does it mean to be a peacemaker? What is the Christian response to violence? During our retreat we will explore how we can place ourselves in the center of the storm and be an instrument of peace. For more information and to register for this retreat call Our Lady of Calvary office at 860-677-8519.

A Celebration of Sacred Scripture

March 3, 2018, 12:30-4:30 p.m., St. Thomas Seminary, Bloomfield

March 3, 2018: Celebration of Sacred Scripture: Ruth and the Mothers of Jesus in the Gospel of Matthew, Saint Thomas Seminary, Bloomfield, 12:30 PM - 4:30 PM. Go to www.catholicdaohct.org to register by February 28th (deadline extended).

The Gospel of Matthew opens with a long genealogy of Jesus that we stumble over once a year at the Christmas Vigil Mass. This genealogy serves as the link between the Hebrew Scriptures and the legitimation of Jesus the Messiah. There is perhaps no better time to enter into this genealogy than during the Lenten season as we reflect upon the cycle of Jesus' life, death and resurrection.

Session 1 (12:30-2:15) will explore the background to Matthew's Gospel and examine Matthew's genealogy, focusing in particular on the theological value of four women included in the line of Jesus.

Session 2 (2:45-4:30) will engage deeply with the story of one of these women, Ruth, as told in the story that bears her name.
